

Since 1966, Hershey has been providing Southern California businesses with the latest innovative office equipment and supplies available at very competitive pricing, but the number one thing that has distinguished Hershey above other service providers is our relentless commitment to old-fashioned customer service.

We pride ourselves on our professionalism, prompt service and attention to detail. At Hershey, our credo has always been "Client Commitment, build the Relationship."

Our goal is to partner with our clients in their quest to increase productivity and at the same time lower their operating costs.

Hershey service personnel have successfully undergone criminal and drug use background screenings, and are well versed in document privacy and sensitivity protocols.
